DOWN FOR THE COUNT SWING & SOUL BAND BIOGRAPHY

Down for the Count are one of the country's most in-demand party bands, performing a huge range of music from the swing, soul and Motown eras at events throughout the UK and internationally.

Sensational vocalists are backed by talented and experienced instrumentalists, giving the band an amazing sound and unrivalled performance that never fails to get audiences dancing.

Their set list is full of surprises and appeals to audiences of all ages, which is why the band have been booked to appear at high profile events such as Harvey Nichols' New Years Eve Party and corporate events for BMW, Virgin and Dell at venues including The Shard, Claridge's Hotel and La Mamounia, Marrakech.

The band regularly perform at top London music venues including Pizza Express Jazz Club, Boisdale and Hideaway Streatham - where their unique blend of musicianship and showmanship keeps audiences coming back for more.
